Organization for Sustainable Actions in Afghanistan (HOSAA) organized an event which was led by Gender Manager on “The 16 Days of Activism against Gender Violence”. In this event the concept, goals, and themes of GBV were discussed and explained to both male and female staff to give them awareness about this campaign and to encourage them to take action and achieve this campaign goals. In this program some national and international guests were invited too. This event was held in the yard of Kabul English Learning Center which the majority of participants of the campaign were their staff and students.
